President's Message September 2024

I would like to thank Mike Plessner for giving a great presentation at our August meeting on the many cars he has worked on. We really enjoyed seeing all the videos you and Charlie have put together and hearing all the hard work you both have done. Thank you again.

In August we traveled to Silver Lake for our annual fishing trip. The first 2 days we just relaxed to get to use to the elevation and on the 2nd night unfortunately Joe Principe had to be airlifted to Reno Hospital due to some issues with his breathing and kidneys. The good news is that he is doing much better and arrived home on Thursday. We continued our fishing trip and caught 11 fish on Gull Lake. One day we went to Mono Village located at Upper Twin Lake (near Bridgeport) and enjoyed a very good lunch overlooking the lake. We then headed to Mono Cone for some ice cream. The last night we celebrated Sheri's birthday by enjoying pizza, some delicious carrot cake and played some games. This trip was our 9th annual trip to Silver Lake. Everyone enjoyed themselves and spending time together. Blessed, everyone made it home safe.

I hope everyone is enjoying the cooler weather and September will be a great month. I am looking forward to seeing you all at the tour on Sept 7th to the Heritage Museum. Please see details in the paper.

Have a Blessed Month. Stay well and Safe.

Happy Model "A" nnn

Heritage Square Museum Tour

We're planning a nice leisurely route along Huntington Drive (a little over 11 miles), so you don't have to worry about whether your Model A can make the trip. Starting off from Clearman's/North Woods Inn at 7247 Rosemead Blvd. in San Gabriel we can start gathering at 9:30 a.m. and will depart at 10:00 a.m. The 11:00 a.m. tour of the museum homes/buildings will be less than an hour and, for the most part, is walker accessible. The plan is to then have lunch on the way back. Call/text Jim Frick at 626-733-0369. If for some reason you cannot attend due to a last minute change of plans, the ticket price is refundable.

CONGRATULATIONS
